FROM THE FRONT.

The mail steamer Dictator arrived here this morning from City Point, but brings no news of importance from the Army of the Potomac-The Dictator brought up about 25 enlisted men' who are under sentence of court-martial for various offences. The majority of them are to be sent to the Dry Tortugas. Quite a number of furloughed officers and men came up in the Dictator, who are going home to vote.

DISMISSED THE SERVICE. Second Lieutenant James H. McGill, 11th West Virginia infantry, tried for conduct unbecoming an efficer and a gentleman, (keeping a lewd woman dressed in male attire in his quarters,) has been found guilty of the charge, and sentenced to be dismissed the service of the United States.

General Barnard, U. S. Engineer Corps. has written a scorching reply to the late attack of the Intelligencer upon him apropos of his review of McClellan's report. The Intelligencer will probably think twice before it again stirs up that accomplished officer.

COAST SURVEY .- The operations of the Coast Survey for the year 1862 have appeared in a handsome volume published by the Government printer.

The volume affords abundant evidence of the value to the country of the Coast Survey work, prosecuted so successfully by Prof. Bache.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST. Mood Reported to have Crossed the Tennessee River with 30,000 Men.

Louisville, Nov. 1 .- The New Albany, Indiana Ledger says: A rebel battery is reported on the Mississippi river, at Brandywine Point, about Island 37. The Chearago and Platte Valley were attacked going up, and two per-The gunboats are now at the bend, and no further trouble need be apprehended. The Henderson, Kentucky News says. The great bulk of the drafted men in Kentucky are going into the Confederate service. It is reported that the rebel Gen. A. Lyon has his headquarters at Paris, Tenn., with 700 men and 8 pieces of artillery.

A rumor says Hood, with 30,000 men, crossed the Tennessee river, going porthward to-day. Particulars and locality not stated, nor obtainable at present

The railroad and telegraph from Louisville to Atlanta is in good working order.

Forty-one Rebel Prisoners Sent to Chicago - The Federal Steamer Mazeppa Burned.

CAIRO, Nov. 1 .- Forty-one rebel prisoners including a number of officers, arrived from below to-day and were sent to Chinew by the receis at Fort Herman, on the Tennessee river, on Saturday, was the Mazeppa. She was a new steamer, on her first trip. She was valued Most of the clothing and blankets were taken to Fort Herman before the boat was burned. The fire from a gunboat prevented therebels from removing all the stores and forage from the river bank. The fort was shelled by the gunboat two hours, eliciting no reply, and then sent a party ashore, who burned the forage left by the rebels on the bank of the river. A retel force—Buford's command—had taken possession of Fort Herman the night previous. Their battery was masked on the bank, and completely commanded the river in each di-The officers and crew of the Mazeppa escaped to Pine Bluff, except Capt. Pitti. Squads of Forrest's men, who passed through Dresden, state that an engagement occurred between a portion of Forrest's force and Colonel Hatch last week, in which Forrest was routed with a less of arms, ammunition, baggage and

The locality of the fight is not stated. Buford, Chalmers, and Lyon, held a consultation at Paris, Tennessee, on Friday last. All of Forrest's men, furloughed or strag. gling through the country, are ordered to rendezvous at Jackson, Tennessee.

Strong reinforcements of mounted infantry have arrived at Paducah, which it is believed have changed Forrest's plan of operations. It is thought that Johnson ville will be the point

FROM EUROPE.

New York, Nov. 2.- The steamship Persia, from Liverpool on the 22d and Queenstown on the 23d, has arrived. The steamer Virginia arrived out on the

The news by the Persia is unimportant. The commercial depression is unabated, but funds are firmer.

to be Shot. [Special correspondence of the Chronicle.] BEFORE PETERSBURG, Nov. 1 .- Everything has been unusually quiet until yesterday. It was thought by some our pickets would retaliate for the trick played upon them by the rebel skirmishers. By some negligence, several outposts were taken by the enemy. Skirmishing is kept up dwring the night as the best preventative against such mishaps.

There will soon be a number of executions in this army for desertion—that is, if the President does not display too much clemency. Those who leave our lines carry information with them, are loquacious, and anxious to tell all they know. Many rebel prisoners take the oath of allegiance, enlist for bounty, and the first opportunity that offers away they go to taeir friends. They have had a nice furlough, and return to their commands enriched and

But what have we gained from the information of deserters! Nothing, absolutely nothing. I never knew them to report an expected attack; and when have their words been verified by the result! If one should a tempt to ingratiate himself, because of valuable communications he has to impart, the man should be held in close confinement, and shot, if his "important infermation" should prove spu-

Rebels desert to escape death, hunger, and hardships. They think no more of our cause nor less of their own than ever. Major Venable, captured by the 2d corps, near Boynton plank road, a Georgian, and formerly adjutant reneral of Stuart's cavalry, then upon A. P. Hill's staff, is a fair specimen of the prisoners we take No insignia, no mark of dress or address betrayed his rank. About his person scarcely anything could be found to give infor-mation of his grade. When far away from the Southside road, we learned all about him. Would that those captured could be equally

The names of a large number of generals who have been brevetted, was received from Washington. I am not acquainted with the names of all, and will, therefore, refrain from enumerating them at present. R. H. McBRIDE.

RELEASE OF HAMILTON EASTER & CO.-Messrs. Easter and all their clerks (except two) were yesterday released from prison in Washington, and arrived here last evening. The two that have been retained for further disposal are the wholesale bookkeeper, Mr. Edward Parsons, and one of the wholesale clerks, Mr. Jas. Weeden. Mr. Easter and his clerks are ordered to report at Col. Woolley's office at 9 o'clock this morning. The keys of the store will be delivered to Mr. Easter to-day by Col. Woolley, upon his presenting the order from the Secretary of War for them, and we are informed that their establishment will be opened to-morrow morning for the regular transaction of business. The return of these gentlemen and their many employees to their homes and friends in this city last evening was a matter of much congratulation to all those interested. Mr. Weegen (who is still retained) is the clerk who, it is alleged, sold the goods to the contrahand dealers, and Mr. Parsons, it is stated, made out and receipted the bills for the same .-Baltimore Sun

STRUCTION OF THE REBEL RAM ALBEMARLE. Rear Admiral D. D. Porter has forwarded to the Navy Department the detailed reports of Commander Macomb and Lieut. Cushing relative to the destruction of the Rebel ram Al. bemarle: Lieutenant Cushing says:

"On the night of the 27th having prepared my steam launch I proceeded up towards Plymouth with thirteen officers and men, partly volunteers from the squadron. "The distance from the mouth of the river to the ram was about 8 miles, the stream averaging in width some 200 yards and lined with the enemy's pickets. A mile below the town was the wreck of the Southfield, surrounded by some schooners, and was understood that a gun was mounted there to command the bend. I therefore took one of the Shamrock's cutters in tow, with orders to cast off and board at that point if we were hailed. Our boat succeeded in passing the pickets, and even the Southfield, within 20 yards, without discovery, and we were not hailed until by the lookouts on the ram. The cutter was then cast off and ordered below, while we made for the enemy under a full head of steam.

The rebels sprung their rattle, rang the bell, and commenced firing, at the same time repeating their hail, and seeming much confused. The light of a fire ashore showed me the ironciad fast to the wharf, with a pen of legs around her about 30 feet from her side. Passing her close by, we made a complete circle, so as to strike her fairly, and went into her bows on. By this time the enemy's fire was very severe, but a dose of canister at short range served to moderate their zeal and disturb their aim. Paymaster Swan was wounded near me. but how many more I know not. Three bullets struck my clothing, and the air seemed full of them. In a moment we had struck the logs just abreast of the quarter port, breasting them in so me feet, and our bows resting on them. torpedo boom was then lowered, and by a vigorous pull I succeeded in driving the torpedo under the over-hang, and exploding it at the same time that the Albemarle's grawas fired. A shot seemed to go smashing through my boat, and a dense mass of water rushed in from the torpedo, filling the launch and completely dis-

The most of our party were captured, some were drowned, and only one escaped besides myself, and he in another direction. * Completely exhausted, I managed to reach the shore but was too weak to crawl out of the water until just at daylight, when I managed to creep into the swamp, close to the fort. THE NEW YORK SOLDIERS' VOTE. The New York Commissioners, headed by Hon. A. J. Parker, who on first reaching Washington assumed a decidedly blustering style, demanding the immediate release of Colonel North, &c., &c., now draw it milder upon being informed of the nature of the evidence against the prisoners charged with complicity in the fraud upon the soldiers' vote. The Commissioners now suggest that it would "be advisable" to have the trial of Col. North and his fellow-prisoners postponed until after the election. The authorities, however, we hear, are of the opinion that Col. North and his associates are entitled to an immediate trial, in order that if proved to be innocent they may be set free, and if guilty, punished.

The trial will, it is understood, be entered upon at 11 o'clock to-morrow. Meantime the Commissioners are allowed access to the prisoners, and afforded all facilities for making their defence. The New York State Agency rooms have been turned over to the Commissioners, and such votes as were found there at the time of the arrest of the State Agents have been handed over to Mr. Kelley, of the Commissioners, who has made himself responsible for their safe transmission. The Commissioners virtually concede the point of jurisdiction, by admitting that the State of New York has no power to try the case, and that, thus, if tried at all, it must be by the military authorities of the United States. IN TOWN.

Major General Butler, commander of the Army of the James, arrived here this morning at 7 o'clock from the front on his dispatch boat Greyhound. He looks full of vim as ever, and as if in excellent condition to perform any duty to which he may be assigned in the work of suppressing the rebellion.

GENERAL RAMSEUR. The body of the rebel General Ramseur, who was killed in the Valley, in the engagement of the 19th of October, and fell into our hands, was shipped from the 6th street whart yesterday to City Point, on board of the mail boat Webster, en route to the friends of the deceased in the South, by permission of General Grant. The body was in charge of a rebel Major and a Sergeant, specially paroled for the purpose.

THE PUBLIC DEBT .- The official statement of the public debt for the month of October shows amount outstanding to be $2,017,099,515 75. or an increase since last monthly statement of over $61,000. The debt bearing interest in coin s about $961,000,000; the debt berring interest in la WILL HIULD, cot,000,000, she debt interest has ceased, $357,000; and the debt bearing no interest, $471,530,000. The interest has increased to $56,646,000 in coin, and to $28.667,000 in lawful money, or $2,000,000 on the former, and $1 500,000 on the latter-the entire amount of interest being $85,313,606 63. The unpaid requisitions are $37,500,000, and the amount in the treasury nearly $20,000,000.

The amount of 6 per cent, bonds exchanged for 7-30's under the acts of July and August, 1862, is nearly $126,000,000, an increase since the former monthly statement of $11,000,000. The amount of 5-20's six per cent. bonds, under the act of June, 1864, is $37,781,000. The 7-30's 3 year notes authorized by the act of July 17, 1861, have been reduced from twenty-five to fourteen millions. The amount of certificates of indebtedness has been increased six and onethird millions. The two years five per cent. notes have been reduced $4,676,000 since the September statement, and the three years Treasury notes, under the act of June 30, 1861, have increased nearly $21,000,000. The fractional currency bas been reduced from twenty-four and a half millions to $20,726,000.

AN ATTACK ON THE WATER BATTERY AT CASTINE, MAINE. The Attack Repulsed.

Boston, Nov. 2.-A dispatch from Augusta-Maine, states that an attempt was made Monday evening to surprise the water battery at Castine by a raiding party from the land side The sentinel was fired upon but the garrison rallied and drove the attacking party off. They escaped by boats after exchanging a number of shots. One of the raiders it is supposed was wounded, none of the garrison were hurt, but the bullets came very near some of them. Castine is defended by two new earth works, mounting 5 guns each.

FROM THE FRONT. Particulars of the Capture of our Pickets by the Johnnies-Some of Them had never Loaded a Musket-Picket Firing kept up-All Quiet Yesterday Morning.

[Correspondence Associated Press.] HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, NOV. 1 .-The surprise and capture of a part of our picket line, on Sunday night, occurred in front of Fort Davis, and the men taken belonged to the 69th and 111th New York. They were for a greater part new men, and somewhat ignorant of their duties, and hence were not so watchful as the older troops who have been on duty at this point of the line.

This is the same place where our men sometime ago played the rebels a similar trick, and the utmost vigilance has ever since been exercised on both sides to preventa repetition of the occurrence. But when the late move commenced every man in the ranks left behind had to take his turn on picket, and some of these men, it is said, had never even loaded a gun.

It seems the rebels did not carry off a single musket belonging to our soldiers, as they were all found and brought in by Gen. Pierce's brigade, which went out to re-establish the line. The only way to account for this is that their force was too small to carry so many extra arms, and that they did not have time to return for them.

Although firing was kept up by both sides on the line here, no casualties are reported. Last night it was kept up most of the night, but the line remains the same as it was previous to the affair. All is quiet this morning.

We are having Indian summer here. The mornings and evenings are cold enough to render fires very agreeable, while the days are ust warm enough to make out-door life the most pleasant imaginable.

THE MCCLELLAN FLAG RAISING. - Last night, a McClellan and Pendleton flag was thrown across L street south, at the corner of 7th street east, from the restaurant of Capt. J. M. Thornton.

A procession was formed at the Parker's Hall headquarters and marched down to the Sixth Ward, carrying in their line a number of transparencies, headed by the Columbia band. On this occasion there was a large detail of police, under command of Assistant Superintendent Reed, including a number mounted, on the ground to suppress any disorder, and their presence no doubt prevented a muss. There was not such a crowd present as at the raising of the flag on 8th street one week ago, but there were some on both sides who undoubtedly were prepared for a fight. The flag was run out about 8 o'clock amid the cheers of the McClellanites, the band meanwhile playing the Star Spangled Banner; after which, speeches were made by John E. Norris,

Esq., and Mr. Callahan. About half-past 9 o'clock the meeting adjourned, and the procession came back to the ity to serenade Mr. Pendleton, the candidate for the Vice Presidency, but he could not be found, and after putting away their transparencies and giving a number of cheers, the crowd dispersed. About the time the meeting was breaking up several McClellan men passed down 8th street, hurrahing for McClellan, when a crowd of the opposite party made their appearance and run them off. The McClellanites started for the meeting place for reinforcements, but finding the crowd had left, followed on up 7th street being chased by the Lincoln men for a short distance, but without any collision occurring. The detail of the police numbered about fifty men, and they were judiciously disposed of to put down any disorder.

to pay a fine of $30. In the case of Sarah Crow, indicted for larceny, a nolle pros. was entered. Alexander Hughes and John Hughes, charged with an assault and battery, submitted their cases, and were sentenced to pay a fine of $25

THE POLICE LAST NIGHT .- The beats of the Metropolitan police were not patrolled last night as usual in the early hours, and citizens noticing the fact could not account for the absence of the policemen. The reason was that Superintendent Webb had been notified that a political meeting would be held in the Sixth Ward, and there were fears of a riot. To secure peace, he detailed a very strong force for that point, which necessarily took men from the beats east of 9th street west. He was also requested to detail a force for duty at the colored Presbyterian Church, 15th street, where the colored citizens were holding a meeting for rejoicing over the adoption of the new constitution by the State of Maryland. This detail called a number of policemen from the Western beats.

Fortunately there was no disorder at either place where the officers were on duty, and the regular beats were quiet except in the Fourth Ward, where some soldiers, taking advantage of the absence of the police, behaved in a very disorderly manner.

Superintendent Webb does the most in his a much larger force is needed for the amount

A ROUGH NIGHT IN SWAMPOODLE .- Last night the vicinity of 4th and H streets, and along H to the Government printing office was greatly disturbed by the conduct of disorderly soldiers. From eight to a dozen persons were severely beaten three of them with brass knuckles or other dangerous implements. Surgical assistance was required in several cases. The assailing parties were men in artillery uniform, and when last seen were going in the direction of Camp Barry. No arrests were made, though the disorder occurred early in the night. The police of the ward are not to blame as the Superintendent, anxious to preserve peace at the political meeting in the Sixth ward, had ordered a strong force there, leaving but three or four men on duty in the Fourth Ward.

an old woman, a sub-tenant in a house belong. ing to W. H. Fanning, and rented to Patrick McNamarra, was arrested by officer Miller for tearing down the plastering of the house. Mc-Namarra, the tenant, had left the house, and Mr. Fanning had to take the course prescribed by the recent Act of Congress to eject the subtenant. Yesterday the prisoner after moving, returned to the house and tore the plastering down. She was seen in the act by Mr. McNa-marra, who had her arrested. Justice Miller, in consideration of her humble circumstances, fined her $3 for disorderly conduct. REAL ESTATE SALES,-R. M. Hall & Co.,

SHOOTING AFFRAY BETWEEN BROTHERS. On Monday night a shooting affray occurred a short distance from the Navy Yard bridge, on the road to Good Hope-a young man named Wm. Goodrick shooting his brother Henry, the ball passing nearly through his thigh. The brothers had been at Martin's tavern, and when they left for home were good friends, but it is thought that they had a quarrel, which led to William drawing a pistol and shooting Henry. The wounded man was taken to his father's residence, where the ball was extracted yesterday morning. William has not yet been arrested.

SOME STONE .- To-day, a large piece of granite, quarried from the Dix Island (Maine) quaries, and intended for one of the columns of the Treasury building, was drawn up the avenue from Blagden's wharf. It weighs about twenby-nine tons, and was placed on two tracks of of four wheels each, built in an extra strong manner, and was drawn by a team of fourteen huge oxen.

LIGHT BREAD.-Yesterday, Mr. H. Lyles Clerk of Center Market, in the discharge of his duty, confiscated 131 loaves of bread, which proved to be less than the weight prescribed by law.
